

SERD Meeting Minutes

10/13/08

Attendance – Gargi Roysircar, Sheeba Thomas, Cindy McKusick, Antoinette Booth, Wendy Vincent, Brian Denietolis, Cricket Braun, Krista Reincke, Fran Berry-Worcester

- Krista and Claire got her internship at UVM. They developed the internship themselves and there is already interest in from other students to utilize the site in the years to follow.
- Brian, Wendy, and Kristi discussed internship applications, APA/APPIC internship sites and Licensure.
- Sheeba placed SERD's Mission statement to a paragraph describing SERD in PsyD Notes.
- Cindy would like to start the ball running on going to Texas. She discussed possible dates. Brian suggested to assess the need in Texas and decided where they should go. Once a place is decided upon, contact American Red Cross in that area. All connections/communications can happen through the internet. A hand out with pictures and description of what happened will be developed, emailed to all class folders, and included in PsyD Notes.
- Yom Kippur was this past week (October 9th)
- Antoinette will be the new research assistant helping Gargi get ready for her January key note at the National Multicultural Conference and Summit in New Orleans.
- Sheeba, Brian, Wendy, Cori, Nate, Amanda, Josefina, All presented at the symposium at Boston College. Feedback from the audience and participants was very good. During the next SERD meeting the group will repeat the presentation. Oct 27th from 11:30am-1:00pm
- A group will be attending the Diwali (Indian holiday- Festival of Lights) on October 19th at the Mariposa Museum, Petersborough, NH
- Bulletin board space has been given to SERD on the second floor. A new display will be hung this coming week.
